It is a remarkable fact that Burmah differs from almost all other Oriental countries in the freedom accorded to its women. They shand in every way almost on an equality with men. Girls share equally with boys in all inheritance. Kansas City boasts of 20,000 marriages since 1881, and claims that the conditions in that community are favorable to the conjugal relation, which is the great con-serving force of society. They denote that marriage is far from being a failure in For the first time in the history of the English colonial courts a woman has been admitted to the bar, in the person of a young Jewiss, Miss Ethel Benjamin. She is now a barrister and solicitor duly qualified to practice in the supreme court of New Zealand.

A curious thing is reported from Staunton, Va., by a correspondent of the Electrical World. The telephone people, whose experience with pretty telephone girls has not been altogether satisfactory, advertised for ugly girls and there were twenty-five applicants.
